

Risk Management Resources & Services

Irwin Siegel Agency's Risk Management Division is committed to helping our insureds manage risk and control losses by protecting their organization, staff, and the individuals they serve. Resources include:

Video Lending Library

ISA has a large selection of free training videos available for insureds to borrow. They cover topics such as Driver Training, Emergency Preparedness, OSHA, Human Service Field-Related Issues, and Management. To see a full list of videos, visit rm.siegelagency.com.

Safety Bulletins & Posters

ISA's Safety Bulletins cover various safety topics and are designed for use in short, 5-10 minutes training sessions with staff or the people you support. There are a number of different bulletins in the areas of general safety, vehicle safety, and seasonal safety. All safety bulletins and posters can be copied for distribution to staff members.

Educational Booklets

Our educational booklets can be requested and mailed directly to our customers or printed from our website. These resources cover topics including Wheelchair Safety, Bedbugs, Compliance, Safety Committees, Auto Safety, and more.

Email Blasts

Stay informed about risk management resources and field-related news with updates from us via email that provide timely, pertinent information to help with your agency's operations.

On-Site Consultative Services

ISA continually strives to meet the needs of our insureds. We orchestrate on-site consultative services from our network based on your organization's needs, then develop a support plan to help minimize losses and keep your employees and the people you support safe.
